Smells like summer. Cut grass, floral notes. Quite pleasant and reminds me of California style, in a good way!

Pharus Rugaro Falerio Pecorino 2013 DOC

When chilled, notes of caramel and apple on the nose. Crisp tart apple taste. When room temp, a bit of ocean and flint on nose and peach apricot nectar taste with honey finish. Well balanced and paired well with pasta with fennel, celery, sweet onion, sun dried tomatoes and garlic. Great paring.

Color of a Pinot Noir, similar nose without the barnyard, very cherry taste, loads of acid. An unusual Barolo, to say the least. R.D.
