President's Message

Ciao a tutti,

Summer has transitioned into lovely Fall weather, and LICS has some fun events coming your way.

Sunday, November 13th, is our general meeting at the Lancaster Liederkrantz, in Manheim. Our program features a demonstration of the Arcobaleno Mini Pasta Extruder machine, where we'll learn a simple way to make delicious fresh pasta and sample it afterwards.

There is a new chef, Matt Miller, at the Liederkrantz and he is getting good reviews from our members who have had dinner there. He is making Chicken Piccata, Roasted Potatoes, Vegetable, Salad and Dessert for us.

Sunday, December 11th, is the LICS Christmas Party at the Eden Resort. Back by popular demand is singer Chris Poje. If you attended last year, you will remember an exciting and entertaining performance. This year, Chris will include some audience favorites and Christmas songs, in addition to new songs in the program.

Please see the attached flyers for more details, and we hope to see you at these exciting upcoming events!

Grazie, Rudy DeLaurentis

Picnic News

Lancaster Italian Cultural Society members and guests had a great time enjoying our Sunday, September 11, 2016 picnic at Lancaster Liederkrantz! Despite much competition for county weekend activities, we had 127 in attendance with beautiful weather!

Performers of LVC

Many new members enjoyed their first experience at a LICS event, while meeting and conversing with our members and guests.

There was delicious Italian food complete with salad and dessert, thanks to Enck's Catering in Manheim, which was coordinated by John Villella. They provided beer and other beverages that were a cool treat on a very warm summer day.

We were treated to the music of The Performers of LVC (Lebanon Valley College), thanks to Dee

Viscardi. They beautifully sang The Star Spangled Banner in honor of the 15th Anniversary of the 9/11/2001 attacks on our United States, while attendees respectfully stood in silence with their hands over their hearts.

Members and guests had fun playing Bocce set up by Judy and Nick Siviglia, and Bingo, which was competently called by Joe Molony.

Generations participated in two rounds of the first adult game of Balloon Toss Contest! Fun prizes were distributed to our DRY winners! The wet contestants did not allow losing to "dampen" their spirits! :)

Many thanks to Rudy DeLaurentis, Ann Marie Petrone, Phyllis Eckenroth, Dee Viscardi, John Villella, and Helen Ebersole for their help in planning for the picnic. To the many others who helped with greeting and registration, sales of our LICS products, games, set up and clean up, thank you!

LICS is proud to again present Chris Poje as the entertainer for our Christmas Party. If you attended last year, you will remember an exciting and entertaining performance. This year, Chris will include some audience favorites and Christmas songs, in addition to new songs in the program.

In 2001, after 20 years as a Detective Sergeant in the NYPD, Chris retired to become a fulltime entertainer and performs over 100 shows annually. His passionate renditions of classic hits by Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett and Michael Buble have thrilled audiences. In 2010, Chris won first place in the PA Senior Idol competition.

Please plan to attend and celebrate the holiday season with family and friends.

As part of our effort to support the community, LICS will donate its part of the proceeds from the 50/50 raffle to The Clare House, a program which serves homeless women and children.

The price for the dinner is $35 per person.

Kindly RSVP and return the bottom of this form before: Monday, December 5, 2016.

Checks to LICS and send to: Ann Marie Petrone, 342 N. Duke St., Lancaster, PA 17602 (393-8271)
